*"Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."
(Psalm 127:1)*

In all that you do, with every decision that you make, and in all of your relationships, don't make the mistake of leaving God out of it. Without God at the helm, guiding you, directing you and working things out on your behalf, your accomplishments will be futile, and any successes will be short-lived and painful. If we fail to depend on Him, everything we try to build will have a weak foundation. All that we are and the very best that we can be comes from Him, and He is standing by waiting for us to just place it in His loving hands. Commit and dedicate every area of your life to Him. He will do the work that needs to be done in us, for us and through us. With God as the Commander-in-chief, your labor will not be in vain.

God bless you,

Bishop Joel and Pastor Ylawnda Peebles

A MONTH OF THANKSGIVING

By: Bishop Joel Peebles

"In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thessalonians 5:18). November is the month that we celebrate a special day of Thanksgiving. In our hearts we remember all the blessings of God in our lives and we give Him praise. But why stop there? Every day this month, take time to think about the goodness of God. Let this month be the beginning of a lifetime of gratefulness.

Lord, we thank you for who you are—our God and loving Father, all-knowing, all-powerful and wise, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. You are righteous, pure, holy, loving, merciful and forgiving. Nothing is too big or too small for you. You created, organized and mastered the vastness of the Universe, and yet you know and understand the very intricacies of our individual hearts. You take the time to hear us when we cry out to you, and you answer our every prayer. Whether the answer is "yes", "no", "later", or "I have something better in mind for you", you let us know that you are always there for us. We have nothing to fear because we are never alone. You reach down and pull us up when we fall. You give us strength when we are weak and encourage us when we are unsure. You wipe away our tears and wrap us in your loving arms when we are sad, hurt, disappointed or confused. You know our thoughts, even before we speak them. Our lives are important to you. "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows" (Luke 12:6,7 NIV).

You are our provider, our protector, our counselor, healer, shelter. You love us so much that you put on flesh and walked among us in the form of your only begotten Son. You taught us to walk in faith, peace, trust and love. Then you took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses, becoming sin for our sakes and taking the fall for us. You could have called 12 legions of angels to rescue you from the cross but you were obedient unto death, and rose again to defeat the enemy, so that we may have eternal life. You anointed each of us with a talent, a purpose and a plan for our lives, so that we may be used by you to bring glory to your name. "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart" (Jeremiah 29:11-13).

Lord we fall at your feet in humility and loving respect. We bow before you in thanksgiving, this month and always, because You are the King of Glory. We praise you and thank you for who you are, and we are grateful.

"For you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long" (Psalm 25:5).

Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
