Dear City of Praise Family,

⁷ “Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go.

⁸ Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

⁹ Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.”

¹⁰ So Joshua ordered the officers of the people:

¹¹ “Go through the camp and tell the people, ‘Get your provisions ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.’” (Joshua 1:7-11)

Saints, prepare yourselves for open doors....

God bless you,

Preparing for OPEN DOORS

By: Bishop Joel Peebles

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you," declares the LORD, "and will bring you back from captivity. (Jeremiah 29:11-14)

Know that God is all powerful, and He has a plan for you. The Israelites were present when the death angel came through Egypt, but they were kept safe by the blood of the lamb on their doorposts. And they were instructed, as they ate their last meal in captivity, to have their cloak tucked into their belt for travel, their shoes on their feet and staff in their hand. In other words, have their bags packed and be ready for where God was about to take them. And before they left the next day, God gave them favor with the Egyptian people, so they walked away with riches.

The Israelites had done as Moses had said, and had asked the Egyptians for gold and silver jewelry and for clothes. The LORD made the Egyptians respect the people and give them what they asked for. In this way the Israelites carried away the wealth of the Egyptians. (Exodus 12:35-36)

...and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. (Proverbs 13:22)

This time of social distancing and separation is not a time to fear, nor a time for leisure inactivity.

For the righteous, it is a time of preparation. It is a time to draw closer to God, a time for study of His Word, and a time to hear His voice and His direction for your next steps. Know that you are protected from the pestilence that is consuming the world. You are His chosen generation, and you will see new doors and doors that were previously closed to you begin to open. New opportunities will arise and you will suddenly find yourselves in positions of leadership, enterprise and entrepreneurship that will astound the world. God will not put you in positions that you cannot handle, because through Him you can do all things, and He has already fitted you with the talent and the capability. But you must be prepared, spirit, soul and body, for the higher levels. The world has turned its back on God and we are the tools that He is using as witnesses to His love and His power. So get ready. We have work to do for the Kingdom.

Then those who feared the LORD talked with each other, and the LORD listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the LORD and honored his name.

"On the day when I act," says the LORD Almighty, "they will be my treasured possession. I will spare them, just as a father has compassion and spares his son who serves him. And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not. (Malachi 3:16-18 NIV)
